Business Challenge

The most efficient way to gain value from your BMC solutions is to make sure your organization is using them to their fullest functionality. And, the fastest and easiest way to do that is through product knowledge gained from the product experts. But, how do you get your dispersed team, with multiple learning styles trained – on time and on budget?

BMC Solution: OnDemand Learning and Lab

Our OnDemand Learning and Lab is the ideal training method to keep your professionals highly skilled while being able to keep your department on budget. This innovative new modality is a combination of self-paced interactive learning and access to a remote lab environment. It also offers guided lectures, step-by-step demonstrations, case studies and much more. With OnDemand Learning and Lab, you can maximize your productivity while minimizing what you spend on education.

Self-paced Interactive Learning	OnDemand Lab Environment
Animated case studies/scenarios	24/5 access to your own dedicated, pre-configured remote lab environment
Guided lectures	Downloadable guide of hands-on labs
Step-by-step demos	Optional demos should you want to be 'shown' the solutions as well as trying it out yourself
Quizzes and exams throughout	Plenty of time to explore, learn by doing and test out ideas or company scenarios

BUSINESS RUNS ON I.T. I.T. RUNS ON BMC SOFTWARE.
